

INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM

INSTITUT
CAENNAIS
DE RECHERCHE
JURIDIQUE

organised by the Faculty of Law of the University of Caen Normandie, ICREJ, the Institut Louis Favoreu Aix-en-Provence, the joint research unit International, Comparative and European Law (DICE) and the Institute of Public Law, Political and Social Sciences (IDPS)

THE ITALIAN CONSTITUTION AT 75: PERSPECTIVES FROM FRANCE

Scientific Committee :

Eleonora Bottini, Université de Caen Normandie
Franck Laffaille, Université Sorbonne Paris Nord
Nicoletta Perlo, Université de Toulouse I Capitole

Friday ¹ December 2023 Saturday
2 December 2023

Campus 1 / Bât. B / Amphithéâtre Huet (1st Dec.)
and Amphithéâtre De Bouard (2nd Dec.)

Registration required at <https://icrej.unicaen.fr/agenda/>

1ST AND
2ND
DECEMBER

THE ITALIAN CONSTITUTION AT 75: OUTLOOK FROM FRANCE

FRIDAY 1 DECEMBER - 9AM-6PM

9.15 am | Welcome of participants

9.30 am | Welcome by the co-director of ICREJ and the organisers

Thibault Douville, Professor of Private Law, University of Caen Normandy

9h45 - 10h15 | Introduction - Comparing France and Italy: methodology and issues

Otto Pfermann, Director of Studies, École des hautes études en sciences sociales (EHESS)

10.15am - 11am | Part 1. Origins and specific features of the Italian system

Chair: Élodie Saillant-Maraghni, Professor of Public Law, University of Caen Normandy

The Constituent Assembly and the normativity of the Constitution

Eleonora Bottini, Professor of Public Law, University of Caen Normandy

Italian politicians' fascination with French-style semi-presidentialism

Isabelle Boucobza, Professor of Public Law, University of Paris Nanterre

11 a.m. - 11.30 a.m. | Coffee break

11.30 a.m. - 1 p.m.

The role of the President of the Republic: an uncertain semi-presidential system

Franck Laffaille, Professor of Public Law, Sorbonne Paris Nord University

Réflexions on the impact of populists in power on Italian institutions. The experience of the XVIII legislature

Nicoletta Perlo, HDR lecturer in public law, University of Toulouse 1 Capitole

Putting ministers on trial in Italy: the abolition of any privilege of jurisdiction

Camille Aynès, Senior Lecturer in Public Law, University of Paris Nanterre

12h30 - 13h | Discussions

1pm - 2pm | Lunch break

2pm - 3pm

Chair: Jean-Manuel Larralde, Professor of Public Law, University of Caen Normandy

The role of the Constitutional Court

Jean-Jacques Pardini, Professor of Public Law, University of Toulon

The Italian Constitutional Court confronts the limits of representative democracy

Caterina Severino, Professor of Public Law, Sciences Po Aix

3pm - 4pm | Part 2. The form of the State

Italian regionalism and its principles

Michaël Bardin, Senior Lecturer in Public Law, University of Avignon

"Der Lebenswille eines Volkes": Constitution and autonomy in South Tyrol

Edoardo Stoppioni, Professor of Public Law, University of Strasbourg

16h - 16h30 | Coffee break

16.30 - 18.00 | Part 3. The Italian Constitution in the international context: system relationships

The relationship between the Italian Constitution and international and European human rights law

Emanuel Castellarin, Professor of Public Law, University of Strasbourg

The dialogue of judges between the Italian Constitutional Court and the Court of Justice of the European Union

Federica Rassu, Senior Lecturer in Public Law, University of Poitiers

EU cross-compliance and Next Generation in Italy

Francesco Martucci, Professor of Public Law, University of Paris 2 Assas

SATURDAY 2 DECEMBER - 9AM-1PM

9am | Welcome

9.15am - 1pm | Part 4. Fundamental rights

Chair: Armelle Gosselin-Gorand, Professor of Private Law, University of Caen Normandie

Origins and constitutional function of the Corte costituzionale

Pasquale Pasquino, Director of Research at the CNRS

The power of the Italian Constitutional Court: a strategic analysis

Raphael Paour, Senior Lecturer in Public Law, Université Paris Saclay

The principle of solidarity in the case law of the Constitutional Court

Anna Maria Lecis Cocco Ortu, Senior Lecturer in Public Law, Sciences Po Bordeaux

New rights under the Italian Constitution

Paolo Passaglia, Professor of Comparative Law, University of Pisa

11 a.m. - 11.30 a.m. | Coffee break

Religion and secularism in the Italian Constitution and the case law of the Constitutional Court

Christine Pauti, Senior Lecturer in Public Law, University of Paris 1 Panthéon Sorbonne

LGBT rights

Jordane Arlettaz, Professor of Public Law, University of Montpellier

The Cappato saga and the end of life

Julien Jeanneney, Professor of Public Law, University of Strasbourg

12h45 - 13h15 | Conclusion - The Italian constitutional model as seen from France: a counter-model to be reassessed and rehabilitated

Marie-Claire Ponthoreau, Professor of Public Law, University of Bordeaux

1.15pm | Cocktail lunch

* The presence of professionals is indicated subject to unforeseeable circumstances.

THE ITALIAN CONSTITUTION AT 75: PERSPECTIVES FROM FRANCE

REGISTRATION

Registration required on the event page: <https://icrej.unicaen.fr/agenda/>

280 for the two days per person (continuing education, with issue of a finding certificate)

Free for free auditors (no certificate of attendance required)

More details on prices on the event page

RENDEZ-VOUS

De Bouard Amphitheatre
and Amphithéâtre Daniel Huet - Campus
1 Université de Caen Normandie
Esplanade de la Paix | CS 14032
14032 Caen cedex 05

CONTACT

droit.recherche@unicaen.fr

02.31.56.51.84

CAMPUS ACCESS

Car | Follow périphérique nord exit n° 5,
Direction Centre Ville

Tram from SNCF station | Line T1
University station

Bus | Lines 2 and 4 station

Université

ICREJ . UNICAEN . FR

